

POLITECNICO DI MILANO PHDs - EMPLOYMENT SURVEY

The 2013 and 2014 PhDs of Politecnico are 699.

The overall number of interviews carried out for this survey is 520, accounting for 74,4% of the total number of PhDs.

The data in the following report aggregate responses of Italians and international PhDs

Total PhDs

699

PhDs interviewed

520

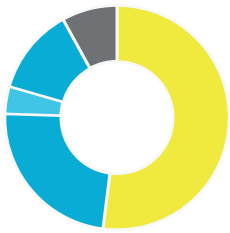

92,3%
7,7%

Employment rate

Unemployment rate

What they do

Researcher, Associate/Full Professor, Fellow/Post Doc
Private sector
Self-employed

52%
40%
8%

4% of the respondents working in the private sector is employed in R&D

Where they work

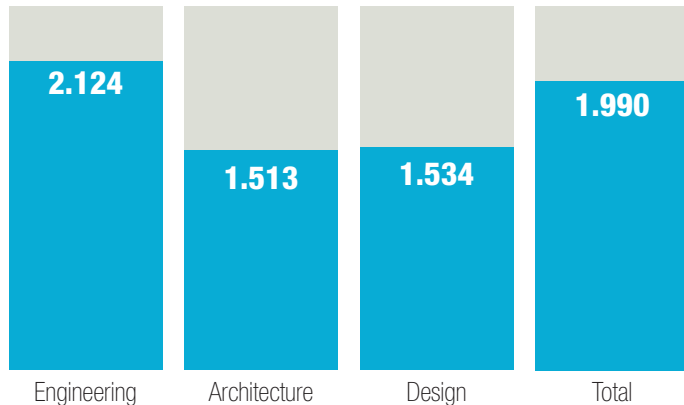

Italy
Abroad

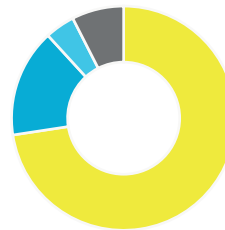

67%
33%

Monthly average wage

(Euros)

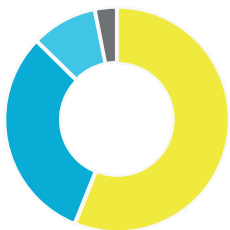

Contract type

Permanent Temporary Apprenticeship
Collaboration

72,6%
15,6%
4,3%
7,5%

Are the skills acquired in the PhD adequate to your current job?

Definitely positive
Quite positive
Quite negative
Definitely negative

56,1%
31,2%
9,5%
3,2%

Do you think you need a PhD for your current job?

Definitely positive
Quite positive
Quite negative
Definitely negative

51,4%
27,0%
13,9%
7,7%